Privacy Act Statement, 5 USC 552a(e)(3),

18 U.S.C. 4042 authorizes the BOP to manage inmates committed to the custody of the Attorney General. The Bureau is also responsible for individuals who are directly committed to its custody pursuant to the 18 U.S.C. 3621 and 5003 (state inmates), and inmates from the District of Columbia pursuant to section 11201 of Chapter 1 of Subtitle C of Title XI of the National Capital Revitalization and Self-Government Improvement Act of 1997 (Pub. L. 105-33; 111 Stat. 740). The information is collected to assist the Attorney General and the Bureau of Prisons in meeting statutory responsibilities for the safekeeping, care and custody of incarcerated persons. The records in this system are maintained to better ensure the safety, security and good order of Bureau facilities; to identify and, where appropriate, determine the suitability of visitors with respect to entering prison facilities; and, to more effectively prevent violations of institution policy and/or criminal activity, such as inmate escapes and the introduction of contraband. Where these efforts fail to prevent such violations, and/or where appropriate, records may be collected and used by the Bureau for internal investigations. It includes information critical to the continued safety and security of federal prisons and the public and is used to identify individuals who access BOP facilities. Specific identifiable information, such as SSN, is collected to ensure the unique identification of the individual.

The Routine Uses for the information can be found in JUSTICE/BOP-010 Access Control Entry/Exit System.

Furnishing the requested information is voluntary, but failure to provide all or of part the information may result in lack of further consideration to provide services, clearance or access, or in the termination of your voluntary services.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 0.50 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Suggestions for reducing this burden may be submitted to the Reports Management Office, 320 First St., NW, Washington, DC 20534.
